

August 31, 2015
Press Release

The Natrona County Coroner is investigating an incident where an adult male approximately 50 years old was found in his home in Casper with stab wounds. An autopsy will be scheduled later in the week. Identification is not released until a positive ID is determined and next of kin have been located and notified. The investigation is ongoing with the Casper Police Department.

Connie Jacobson, Coroner